NURSING PROGRAMS AT LOWER COLUMBIA COLLEGE

- Registered Nurse (RN) Program (Associate in Applied Science Degree) - Can be completed in eight quarters. Upon completion students must pass the national licensing exam to become RNs.
- Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) Program - Students may earn a Certificate of Proficiency by exiting the Associate Degree program at the LPN level after four quarters.
- LPN to RN Program - Existing LPNs may complete this online program in one or two years in order to become eligible to take the national licensing exam to become an RN.

MINIMUM RN AND LPN PROGRAM ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- High School Diploma or GED.
- High school chemistry or CHEM 100 AND high school human biology or BIOL 120.
- Completion of MATH 099/MATH 112, PSYC 111, and BIOL 221 with a grade in each of 2.0 or better and overall GPA of these three courses of 2.8.
- Proof of Nursing Assistant Certification issued by the Oregon or Washington Department of Health which includes criminal background clearance.
- Completion of two Admission Tests: Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS) and the Critical Thinking Test (CT).
- Additional points may be earned for completing nursing supportive courses (at least a 2.0 in each and overall minimum GPA of 2.8): BIOL 222, BIOL 257, CHEM 111, ENGL 101, PSYC 205 and SOCY 110/ANTH 207.

MINIMUM LPN TO RN PROGRAM ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- High School Diploma or GED.
- Current unencumbered Washington State or Oregon State LPN license and Current CPR card for Health Care Professionals.
- AIDS education (if PN program was outside of Washington).
- 1000 hours clinical practice in the past 2 years.
- Passing score on the National League for Nursing Acceleration Challenge Examination I.
- Current computer skills.
- GPA of 2.0 or better. A "C" or better is required in all nursing and supportive courses.
- Completion of MATH 099/MATH 112, BIOL 221, BIOL 222, BIOL 257, PSYC 111, PSYC 205, and ENG 101.

Students transferring from other colleges can refer to the Lower Columbia College School of Nursing Transfer Guides for Prerequisite Courses for information on course transferability.

Admission to Nursing School is competitive. Please check with the admissions office to discuss options.
